D. Identify Sections of the Bill That Will Generate the Additional Workload or Cost Increase

Most of what the bill requires is already being done throughout the educational system. See the following section.

E. Expenditure Impact Details (Ties to totals in Section C)

Verne Larsen, USOE Safe and Drug Free Schools Specialist, conversation 1/23/2008: The main type of cost will be an opportunity cost as the USOE and LEAs shift staff priorities in order to revisit existing models and policies to make any necessary changes and then modify professional development opportunities to communicate such changes to schools.

F. No Fiscal Impact or Will Not Require Additional Appropriations?

No additional appropriation is necessary, and there is no obvious measurable fiscal impact.

G. If Bill Carries Its Own Appropriation:H. Impact on Local Governments, Businesses, Associations, and Individuals

Local Governments:

Businesses and Associations:

Individuals:

This is a draft fiscal note response from the Utah State Office of Education (USOE) and may be revised in the future.

This fiscal note input draft does not imply endorsement of this bill by the State Board of Education or USOE.
